Terms and Conditions

All delegates wishing to attend the Conference must register and pay in advance. A confirmation of your booking will be sent by email or post. Payments by cheque must be received at least 7 days prior to the Conference. The telephone booking hotline line closes 24 hours before the start of the Conference.

The organisers reserve the right to amend any aspects of the Conference programme and give no guarantee of the attendance of any speaker.

Should the Conference need to be cancelled a refund of the Conference fee paid will be made to each delegate. There will be no liability to the organisers for any expenses incurred as a result of such cancellation.

There can be no refund for a delegate cancellation received 14 days prior to the event. In lieu of a refund the organisers will accept a substitute delegate to take up the place instead or conference materials can be sent to the delegate unable to attend. Conference materials are provided on the day of the event.

On completion of the Course/Conference Delegates can request for a Certificate of Attendance.

Solicitors or Barristers attending from the UK must make sure they register their attendance if the Course/Conference qualifies for Continuing Professional Development hours by the Solicitors Regulation Authority or the Bar Standards Board.

Paceworking and ESQ may contact delegates by email/post with details of other Conferences and events which may be of interest. Please let the organisers know if you do not wish to receive such correspondence or simply unsubscribe from receiving any emails received.
