

Jointly organised by the Society of Black Lawyers and Ashurst LLP, the City Law: CV & Interview Masterclass is a unique event aimed at providing aspiring ethnic minority undergraduates and graduates with the practical advice and 'insider' information that will help them to improve their chances of securing a training contract. The masterclass will give attendees an opportunity to:

- have their CVs evaluated by associates at Ashurst LLP;
- obtain tips on how to improve their interview techniques through mock interviews with partners at Ashurst LLP;
- strengthen their presentation and communication skills;
- develop a clear understanding and awareness of what City law firms are looking for in the training contract application and interview process; and
- network with Ashurst LLP partners, associates and trainees.

Application process & dates

- 1. The City Law: CV & Interview Masterclass will take place on Thursday 31 March 2011 from 5:00pm-8.30pm at Ashurst LLP and is open to ethnic minority undergraduates and graduates who have obtained or are on course to obtain a minimum 2:1 degree at undergraduate level.
- 2. Places are limited. Students wishing to attend the masterclass must first register online at www.citylaw.eventsbot.com by uploading their CVs along with a covering letter. Registrations must be received by 5:00pm on Monday 21 March 2011.

